

ADVANCE DIRECTIVE

Your Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care, Living Will and Other Wishes

INSTRUCTIONS AND DEFINITIONS

Introduction:

This form is a combined Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care and Living Will for use in the District of Columbia, Maryland and Virginia.

With this form, you can:

- * Appoint someone to make medical decisions for you if you in the future are unable to make those decisions for yourself;

and/or

- * Indicate what medical treatment you do or do not want if in the future you are unable to make your wishes known.

Directions:

- * Read each section carefully.
- * Talk to the person you plan to appoint to make sure that he/she understands your wishes, and is willing to take the responsibility.
- * Place the initials of your name in the blank before those choices you want to make.
- * Fill in only those choices that you want under Parts 1, 2 and 3. Your advance directive should be valid for whatever parts you fill in, as long as it is properly signed.
- * Add any special instructions in the blank spaces provided. You can write additional comments on a separate sheet of paper, but should indicate on the form that there are additional pages to your advance directive.
- * Sign the form and have it witnessed.
- * Give your doctor, nurse, the person you appoint to make your medical decisions for you, your family, and anyone else who might be involved in your care, a copy of your advance directive and discuss it with them.
- * Understand that you may change or cancel this document at any time.

Words You Need to Know:

Advance Directive: A written document that tells what a person wants or does not want if he/she in the future cannot make his/her wishes known about medical treatment.

Artificial Nutrition and Hydration: When food and water are fed to a person through a tube.

Autopsy: An examination done on a dead body to find the cause of death.

Comfort Care: Care that helps to keep a person comfortable but does not make him/her better. Bathing, turning, keeping a person's lips moist are types of comfort care.

CPR (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation): Treatment to try and restart a person's breathing or heartbeat. CPR may be done by pushing on the chest, by putting a tube down the throat, and/or by other treatment.

Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care: An advance directive that appoints someone to make medical decisions for a person if in the future he/she cannot make his/her own medical decisions.

End-Stage Condition: Any chronic, irreversible condition caused by injury or illness that has caused serious, permanent damage to the body. A person in an end-stage condition requires others to provide most of his/her care.

Life-Sustaining Treatment: Any medical treatment that is used to keep a person from dying. A breathing machine, CPR, artificial nutrition and hydration are examples of life-sustaining treatment.

Living Will: An advance directive that tells what medical treatment a person does or does not want if he/she is not able to make his/her wishes known.

Organ and Tissue Donation: When a person permits his/her organs (such as eyes or kidneys) and other parts of the body (such as skin) to be removed after death to be transplanted for use by another person or to be used for experimental purposes.

Persistent Vegetative State: When a person is unconscious with no hope of regaining consciousness even with medical treatment. The body may move and eyes may be open, but as far as anyone can tell, the person cannot think or respond.

Terminal Condition: An on-going condition caused by injury or illness that has no cure and from which doctors expect the person to die, even with medical treatment. Life-sustaining treatments will not improve the person's condition and only prolong a person's dying.
