

Sixth
PSQ Awards 2023

Celebrating Incredible Health Care Workers
Managing Change in an Environment of Competing Priorities in DC Hospitals

Nomination Deadline: June 30, 2023

DETAILS

Individuals working in District of Columbia hospitals strive every day to deliver compassionate, quality and safe patient care. The District of Columbia Hospital Association (DCHA) is honored to highlight the incredible work of our member hospitals and their champions through a generous contribution from Ascension Health.

DCHA will present awards to two individuals; one clinical and one non-clinical, who are managing change in an environment of competing priorities in their hospitals, and who exemplify:

- A dedication to continued delivery of essential services
- A commitment to patient safety
- Unwavering efforts to delivering quality patient care

Award submissions must showcase how individuals go above and beyond normal daily work to manage and support hospital staff, patients, caregivers and the community.

Awards will be presented during the Patient Safety & Quality Summit, November 14, 2023.

Individual Awards (2)

Clinical Category (1)

Individuals who provide credentialed or non-credentialed direct patient care. Examples include, but not limited to, nurse (all levels), physician (all levels), patient care technician, hospitalist, social worker, care coordinator, psychologist, dietitian, etc.

Non-Clinical Category (1)

Individuals who provide support services to staff, patients and caregivers in the hospital setting. Examples include, but not limited to, environmental health services, security, food service, volunteer services, patient transport, administration, human resources, IT, device reprocessing, and administrative assistants.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- 1 Be an employee of a DCHA member hospital.
- 2 Help DCHA promote your award by taking and sending photos for use in communication channels due to any virtual limitations that may arise.

**Click Here to Start Your Nomination**

SELECTION PROCESS

DCHA will collect the submissions for screening and evaluation by applying the award criteria. Submissions will be rated and reduced to two individual award winners. Judging will be performed by an anonymous committee appointed by the DCHA leadership. DCHA will send confirmation letters to winners. All decisions are final.

---

RECOGNITION

- Award winners will be honored and recognized virtually during the Patient Safety & Quality Summit, November 14, 2023.
  - Photo and profile will be highlighted on the DCHA website, newsletter and other DCHA communications.
  - Award winners and stories will be sent to local media.
  - Awardees will receive a cash prize – see award criteria.
  - DCHA will send letters to the hospital leadership describing the individual achievement.
-

DEADLINE: June 30, 2023

---

CONTACT

Gayle Hurt, Vice President, Patient Safety & Quality Operations, ghurt@dcha.org.

2019 Award Winners

Dr. Khadijatou Njimoluh
Howard University Hospital

Rachel Buckman
MedStar Washington
Hospital Center

2020 Award Winners

Amanda Valentine
Howard University Hospital

Constance Mere
Howard University
Hospital

LuTanya Wilson
BridgePoint Hospital
Capitol Hill

Rosalyn Johnson
United Medical Center

2021 Award Winners

Judy Zdobysz
MedStar National Rehabilitation Hospital

Dr. Tracy Meyer
Psychiatric Institute
of Washington

2022 Award Winners

Betsy Gardner
MedStar Washington
Hospital Center

Richard Verstraete
MedStar Georgetown
University Hospital

Past Patient Safety & Quality Award Winners