

District of Columbia Hospital Community Contributions | 2023

$599
Million

in Total Community Benefit*

$36
Million

in Charity Care & Financial Assistance

Health Professionals Education

Training for health professionals, including doctors, nurses and technicians. Educational investments are an important priority in improving job satisfaction and building the future health care workforce.

$156
Million

Subsidized Health Services

Clinical services provided to the community in a subsidized manner after removing losses associated with bad debt, financial assistance, Medicaid, and other programs

$85
Million

Research

Studies that contribute to increased knowledge in the medical field and can help advance life-saving treatments.

$152
Million

Community Health Improvement Services

Programs or activities that improve community health. These services do not generate revenue.

$24
Million

Cash and In-Kind Contributions

Contributions made by the hospital to health care organizations or community groups.

$4
Million

Community Building Activities

Activities that enhance community health by addressing underlying environmental and socioeconomic hazards.

$2
Million

Community Benefit Operations

Activities associated with Community Health Needs Assessments, community benefit program administration, and the organization's activities associated with fundraising or grant writing for the organization's community benefit programs.

$1.7
Million

27,508

District of Columbia hospital employees

